1825 DISCIPLE GROUPS ARE VALUE-DRIVEN, NOT CURRICULUM DRIVEN

A successful disciple group experience is defined by group members engaging in a meaningful discussion, not completing the curriculum material. Establishing trust among members and an understanding of who is in the group is vital to taking group conversations deeper and growing in vulnerability.

Names Matter.

- Icebreaker: If you were an animal, what animal would you be and why?
 - Follow up on last week's next steps. How did it go? Whether you were successful or not: What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?

DISCOVER & DEEPEN

(The goal is to grow in our relationship with Christ and each other. It is ok if you don't cover every question.)

Read Titus 3

- 1. What is ONE thought that stuck with you from this week's sermon? Why?
- 2. What is mercy? Grace? What does it mean to you that we are saved not by works, but by God's mercy and grace?
- 3. What is the difference between speaking truth and "speaking evil" of others, especially leaders or people you disagree with (v.2)?
- 4. Paul reminds us of who we used to be—why is remembering our past important for humility and compassion in living as disciples who make disciples?
- 5. Paul insists on reminding people of the gospel. Why do we so easily forget it, and how can we keep it central in our conversations and relationships?
- 6. How can humility, gentleness, and perfect courtesy be effective tools for living out the Great Commission in a polarized culture?
- 7. In what ways are you tempted to 'mirror the culture' rather than live a distinct life of grace? What needs to shift in your life to reflect the gospel more clearly?
- 8. Titus 3:8 emphasizes being "careful to devote themselves to good works." What are some practical "good works" you can do that create gospel opportunities?
- 9. What keeps you from being "ready for every good work," and how can you prepare your heart to respond when God opens a door?
- 10. Titus 3 ends with greetings and teamwork in the mission. What does this teach us about the importance of community and collaboration in spreading the gospel? How do you need to grow in this?

ACTION STEP

In light of your answer to the last question, what is one step God is calling you to take this week?

Sanctification and spiritual growth are not linear, but they always involve a step of obedience. Some will have the same next step week after week as they grow in spiritual disciplines and learn to walk in obedience. Others will have a next step that can be completed within the week.

The more you can lead individuals in making their next step SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, timely) the easier it is to walk out accountability.

Example:

1825: "My next step is to read my bible more."

Leader: "How many times this next week do you want to read your bible? When will you do it? How long? What will you read?"

1825: "I want to read when I wake up three mornings for 20 minutes."

Have a group member record next steps and share in your Group Me.

Next week check in. How did it go? Whether you accomplished the goal or not: What did you learn about God? Yourself?

Prayer

How can we pray for you and your walk with Jesus? Close in Prayer.

While we are happy to pray for all things, we want to grow in authenticity by asking and sharing how we can pray for one another as we discover and deepen in our relationship with Christ and take next steps of obedience.

TIP: Provide index cards. Have each member write their prayer requests on a card with their name and place in the middle of the circle. At the end of group each person selects a card to pray over for the next week. Encourage members to reach out to the individual they are praying for during the week. Mixed groups: keep guys and girls cards separate. Guys pray and reach out to guys. Girls pray and reach out to girls.
