

1825 DISCIPLE GROUP CURRICULUM

CURRICULUM GUIDE

Easter

April 17-20, 2025

LEADER INFO: Happy Easter! The end of the trimester is quickly approaching. The last week of 1825 curriculum will be the week of May 18th. Please begin prayerfully considering what summer looks like for your group and communicating appropriately. For groups taking a break from weekly meeting in the summer, 1825 is hosting a summer study on John Piper's book Don't Waste Your Life starting June 1. More details coming.

1825 DISCIPLE GROUPS ARE VALUE-DRIVEN, NOT CURRICULUM DRIVEN

A successful disciple group experience is defined by group members engaging in a meaningful discussion, not completing the curriculum material. Establishing trust among members and an understanding of who is in the group is vital to taking group conversations deeper and growing in vulnerability.

Names Matter.

- Icebreaker: What's a life-changing moment you've experienced, and how did it shape who you are today?
 - Follow up on last week's next steps. How did it go? Whether you were successful or not: What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?

DISCOVER & DEEPEN

(The goal is to grow in our relationship with Christ and each other. It is ok if you don't cover every question.)

Read Luke 24:1-12

1. What is ONE thought that stuck with you from this week's sermon? Why?
2. What does Easter mean to you?
3. Why do you think the women went to the tomb expecting a dead body, even after Jesus had foretold His resurrection?
4. The angels ask, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?" — Where are some areas in life where people still look for life in "dead things"? Why?
5. Which of the three traps—lust of the flesh, eyes, or pride of life—do you see most commonly impacting people your age? Why?
6. What are some "tombs" (regret, habits, performance, etc.) we often return to hoping to find life, and why do we do that?
7. Peter ran to the tomb to see for himself. What's one step you could take to personally experience the risen Jesus today?
8. How do you interpret the idea that Jesus is "the fulfillment of all our desires"—flesh, eyes, and pride?
9. Why do you think performance and self-improvement are such attractive "dead places" in our culture?
10. What does it mean to you that "hope has a name," and how can that change the way you see your life right now?

11.If the resurrection isn't just something to believe in, but a new way to see the world—how does that shift your perspective this Easter?

ACTION STEP

In light of your answer to the last question, what is one step God is calling you to take this week?

Sanctification and spiritual growth are not linear, but they always involve a step of obedience. Some will have the same next step week after week as they grow in spiritual disciplines and learn to walk in obedience. Others will have a next step that can be completed within the week.

The more you can lead individuals in making their next step SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, timely) the easier it is to walk out accountability.

Example:

1825: "My next step is to read my bible more."

Leader: "How many times this next week do you want to read your bible? When will you do it? How long? What will you read?"

1825: "I want to read when I wake up three mornings for 20 minutes."

Have a group member record next steps and share in your Group Me.

Next week check in. How did it go? Whether you accomplished the goal or not: What did you learn about God? Yourself?

Prayer

How can we pray for you and your walk with Jesus? Close in Prayer.

While we are happy to pray for all things, we want to grow in authenticity by asking and sharing how we can pray for one another as we discover and deepen in our relationship with Christ and take next steps of obedience.

TIP: Provide index cards. Have each member write their prayer requests on a card with their name and place in the middle of the circle. At the end of group each person selects a card to pray over for the next week. Encourage members to reach out to the individual they are praying for during the week. Mixed groups: keep guys and girls cards separate. Guys pray and reach out to guys. Girls pray and reach out to girls.
