Discussion Questions

Leaders: The goal is to grow in our relationship with Christ and each other. It's ok if you don't cover every question. Save five minutes for the very last question.

Action Step check-in/follow up: How did it go? What did you learn about God? About yourself?

- Read Luke 10:17-37. What stood out to you in the sermon this week and what did God reveal to you in the Scriptures, maybe for the first time?
- Read Luke 10:17-20. What do these verses teach us about where we should find our ultimate joy? (This teaches us that our joy should stem from our relationship with Christ and the eternal security He offers, not in temporary achievements or earthly successes. It reminds us to prioritize our identity in Christ over our actions.)
- Discover: Where do you see the Gospel in the parable of the Good Samaritan?
Deepen: Where do you see yourself in this story?
- Why is it important to remember that you are blind, broken, lost and left for dead without Jesus? (It reminds you that your salvation is by grace alone, in faith alone, through Christ alone. Jesus's love for you leads you to loving and serving Him and others. It also makes you excited to share the gospel with others.)
- Discover: The priest and the Levite turned away from the hurt man because of their religious rules. What has caused you to run away from, instead of running to, broken and hurting people?
- Deepen: How are we called to be the Samaritan? (God did not give us all that we have so we could have all that we want. He gave us our gifts, time and resources so that we and others could have all that we need.)
- Share stories with your group of your Compassion child, or anyone you've been generous and compassionate with.
- Read Luke 10:37. What are some specific steps you can take this week to "go and do likewise" in your community? (Go to the action steps for more ideas.)

Action Steps

The Samaritan experienced a deep, gut-level compassion for the man on the side of the road.

1. Take a moment to pray and ask Jesus: Who is He placing on your heart to feel that same deep compassion for?
2. As soon as you get your answer, take action to help where you can.
3. If you still don't know where to serve, simply pick one of the ministries on our website and start serving.
