CONNECT

If you spend the first few weeks in the connect portion more than curriculum questions that is okay!!!

The goal is not to stick only to this portion, but remember:

1825 DISCIPLE GROUPS ARE VALUE-DRIVEN, NOT CURRICULUM DRIVEN

Names Matter.

- Action Step check-in: Whether you completed it or not – What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
 - Icebreaker: When your routine gets thrown off, what's the first habit that usually disappears?

1825 DG SPRING – WK 17

Sermon Text(s): Matthew 3:11-17, 11, 18:3; John 6:66-71

DISCOVER & DEEPEN

(The goal is to grow in our relationship with Christ and each other. Not answering every question is totally acceptable.)

Read Matthew 11

1. What has God revealed to you about Himself through the Scriptures and through the sermon this week?
2. As this semester wraps up, as summer approaches and rhythms potentially change, what typically shifts in your life—schedule, priorities, spiritual habits?
3. What are the most common reasons people disconnect from community or Jesus in seasons like this?
4. Which of those reasons are you most susceptible to right now (busyness, travel, comfort, distraction, new relationships, etc.)?
5. In a season of transition, how do you see the tension between trusting Jesus vs. your circumstances becoming more pronounced?
6. John questioned Jesus when his circumstances got hard. When your life feels uncertain or different this summer, what kinds of doubts or questions tend to surface?
7. What would it look like for you to plan ahead to bring doubts to Jesus instead of quietly drifting away?
8. When your routines are off and emotions fluctuate, how can you stay anchored in truth instead of feelings?

9. Most people don't wake up and decide to walk away—it's gradual.
What small compromises or patterns could slowly pull you away this summer?
 10. Where are you most likely to numb out or coast spiritually in this next season?
 11. Have you ever taken a "short break" spiritually that turned into something longer? What happened?
 12. If your group pauses or rhythms change, what will it take for you to stay meaningfully connected instead of isolated?
 13. Jesus says, "Come to me... and I will give you rest." How is that different from the kind of "rest" you usually chase in a break or slower season?
 14. 14. What burdens, stress, or distractions are you walking into this next season with?

ACTION STEP

What are 2–3 specific ways you can stay connected to Jesus this summer? (Be concrete—time, place, people, rhythms)

Sanctification and spiritual growth are not linear, but they always involve a step of obedience. Some will have the same next step week after week as they grow in spiritual disciplines and learn to walk in obedience. Others will have a next step that can be completed within the week.

The more you can lead individuals in making their next step SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, timely) the easier it is to walk out accountability.

Example:

1825: "My next step is to read my bible more."

Leader: "How many times this next week do you want to read your bible? When will you do it? How long? What will you read?"

1825: "I want to read when I wake up three mornings for 20 minutes."

Have a group member record next steps and share in your Group Me.

Next week check in. How did it go? Whether you accomplished the goal or not: What did you learn about God? Yourself?

PRAYER

How can we pray for you and your walk with Jesus? Close in Prayer.

While we are happy to pray for all things, we want to grow in authenticity by asking and sharing how we can pray for one another as we discover and deepen in our relationship with Christ and take next steps of obedience.

TIP: Provide index cards. Have each member write their prayer requests on a card with their name and place in the middle of the circle. At the end of group each person selects a card to pray over for the next week. Encourage members to reach out to the individual they are praying for during the week. Mixed groups: keep guys and girls cards separate. Guys pray and reach out to guys. Girls pray and reach out to girls.
