CONNECT

If you spend the first few weeks in the connect portion more than curriculum questions that is okay!!!

The goal is not to stick only to this portion, but remember:

1825 DISCIPLE GROUPS ARE VALUE-DRIVEN, NOT CURRICULUM DRIVEN

Names Matter.

- Action Step check-in: Whether you completed it or not – What did you learn about God? What did you learn about yourself?
 - Icebreaker: If animals could talk, which would be the rudest?

Sermon Text(s): Psalm 104; Matthew 17:1-20; Mark 9:14-29

DISCOVER & DEEPEN

(The goal is to grow in our relationship with Christ and each other. Not answering every question is totally acceptable.)

Read Matthew 17:1-20 and Mark 9:14-29

1. What has God revealed to you about Himself through the Scriptures and through the sermon this week?
2. On the mountain, the disciples witnessed Jesus in His glory, but shortly afterward they encountered suffering and spiritual warfare. What does this teach us about following Jesus in both mountaintop and valley experiences?
3. God says, "This is my beloved Son... listen to Him." What are some voices competing for your attention right now, and what does it practically look like to listen to Jesus?
4. What is a situation in which you felt like Peter wanting to stay on the mountaintop rather than going back to the "real world"?
5. The father honestly admitted, "I believe; help my unbelief!" How does his honesty encourage you in your own faith journey?
6. Jesus rebuked the disciples for their lack of faith. What do you think was missing—not just belief, but dependence, obedience, or something else?
7. Which person in these stories do you relate to most today—the father, the struggling disciples, Peter, or someone else? Why?
8. The Great Commission calls us to make disciples, not just attend church. How can growing in faith and prayer better prepare you to disciple someone else?
9. Who is one person God may be inviting you to intentionally pray for and share the gospel with this week? What might be holding you back?

ACTION STEP

In light of your answers tonight, what is one step God is calling you to take this week?

Sanctification and spiritual growth are not linear, but they always involve a step of obedience. Some will have the same next step week after week as they grow in spiritual disciplines and learn to walk in obedience. Others will have a next step that can be completed within the week.

The more you can lead individuals in making their next step SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, timely) the easier it is to walk out accountability.

Example:

1825: "My next step is to read my bible more."

Leader: "How many times this next week do you want to read your bible? When will you do it? How long? What will you read?"

1825: "I want to read when I wake up three mornings for 20 minutes."

Have a group member record next steps and share in your Group Me.

Next week check in. How did it go? Whether you accomplished the goal or not: What did you learn about God? Yourself?

PRAYER

How can we pray for you and your walk with Jesus? Close in Prayer.

While we are happy to pray for all things, we want to grow in authenticity by asking and sharing how we can pray for one another as we discover and deepen in our relationship with Christ and take next steps of obedience.

TIP: Provide index cards. Have each member write their prayer requests on a card with their name and place in the middle of the circle. At the end of group each person selects a card to pray over for the next week. Encourage members to reach out to the individual they are praying for during the week. Mixed groups: keep guys and girls cards separate. Guys pray and reach out to guys. Girls pray and reach out to girls.
